Meandering Along the Main Stem

By WASH FAYETTE

Sale of the Ed Kiever farm of 338 acres, in Paint Township, regarded as an exceptionally good farm with a great deal of black land, at the Court House door here, reminds me of the interesting history connected with it.

It is about the battle with the Funks, alleged counterfeiters, who were supposed to have used a log house on the farm for producing counterfeit money, which had been passed in Kentucky.

I am very familiar with the farm, and have seen the old cabin, long since torn down, many times. It stood about 100 yards west of Paint Creek, on the Kiever farm, not far from the farm bridge across the stream.

The battle with the Funks occurred in 1818 or 1819 between a sheriff's posse and the entire Funk clan. It was at night, and one man in the posse, Samuel Wilson, was killed. Absalom Funk was wounded in the shoulder. Adam Funk, ring leader of the Funk family, escaped during the melee.

Andrew Trumbo of Kentucky, who had been forced to pay $300 bond when Adam Funk failed to appear in Kentucky to stand trial on the counterfeiting charge, was knocked unconscious, dragged into the log cabin, and Funk was about to cut his throat when one of the Funks asked that his life be spared because his father had once been saved by the Indians.

Adam Funk was later arrested at Miamisburg, returned to a cabin in northern Fayette County, where the Funks and their friends came to rescue him from the sheriff's posse. During the parley Funk again escaped, and again was recaptured, taken to Kentucky, tried for counterfeiting and acquitted.

Later Adam Funk moved to Illinois where, history states, he was shot and killed while attempting to stab an officer who was selling his blacksmith equipment to satisfy creditors.

It was claimed that bullet holes remained in the cabin walls until the building was torn down, but I looked over the old building more than once for the bullet holes and could find none.

As I recall, the logs from the cabin were used in building a hog house on the farm, and many of them are still in it.

For 15 cents—just a dime and a nickel—patrons got their choice of four entrees, three vegetables and five desserts, plus soup and fish. If they wanted a really ritzy meal, they plunked down a quarter and got a pint of claret too.

Ordering a la carte was no financial headache, either. Oysters were 25 cents a dozen and a box lunch was billed for a dime.

And just listen to this—sirloin steak cost eight cents a pound and potatoes were 25 cents a bushel.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(P)—Chairman Wagner (D., N. Y.) of the Senate Banking committee called today for United States membership in a world fund and bank which he said would bring "orderly markets and dependable currency values."

Wagner submitted to the Senate the monetary proposals named collectively "Bretton Woods" after the town in New Hampshire where they were born one year ago in a world conference.

There the United Nations agreed on a plan for an "international monetary fund and international bank for reconstruction and development." Members would be depositors, borrowers, and stockholders.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(P)—Some passenger car owners, including "A" card holders, became eligible today for new tires for a bona fide change of address that required a special gasoline ration.

This is the first time since the beginning of tire rationing that any "A" card holders have been eligible for new tires.

These persons may apply for new tires if they have a tire failure while making a permanent change of residence:

1. War workers moving from one city to another as production shifts from one type of war goods to another and to civilian goods.
2. Members of the armed forces moving to a new post.
3. Discharged veterans returning home or moving to another city to accept a job.

Before being eligible to apply, a motorist must have been issued a special gasoline ration for the trip.

CANTERBURY, Eng., July 16.—(P)—The Archbishop of Canterbury urged today a nationwide network of public bureaus to help adjust marital troubles and check an increase in the divorce rate which he described as "a grave national problem."

In an address prepared for delivery at the Canterbury Diocesan Conference, the archbishop urged mayors of every town in England to "take immediate steps" to establish such bureaus and declared that "public money should be available" to finance them.

MAN SLEEPS RIGHT ON AS LIGHTNING STRIKES

MANSFIELD, July 16.—(P)—A bolt of lightning struck the home of Grant Gerrell yesterday, splintered timbers under his bedroom window and tore away part of the roof.

But Gerrell, a war plant worker, slept right on until firemen and neighbors woke him up to show him the damage.

WOUNDED FUGITIVE CAPTURED AFTER SENSATIONAL ESCAPE

PHILLIPSBURG, N. J., July 16.—(P)—State police said the fugitive who had fatally shot one New Jersey state trooper and seriously wounded another has just been captured near Martin's Creek, about seven miles from here.

Police said the fugitive, whom they identified as Ernest Rittenhouse, 30, of Orange had bullet wounds when he was captured in a barn.

Police said Rittenhouse had surrendered yesterday on the Pennsylvania side of the Delaware River and was recrossing the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge over the river when he attempted to jump. State trooper Frank Perry attempted to stop him, and

Truman Tours Wrecked Heart of Berlin While He Awaits Big Three Conference

HERE ARE THE "BIG THREE," now meeting in Berlin suburban city of Potsdam—President Harry S. Truman of the United States, Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Great Britain and Premier Stalin of Russia.

Peacetime Training Opposed By Martin

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(P)—House Republican Leader Martin proposed today "before the United States adopts compulsory military service" the government seek an international agreement eliminating all such peacetime training.

The Massachusetts representative made public the text of a resolution he will introduce tomorrow urging President Truman, Secretary of State Byrnes and Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., who will represent the United States on the United Nations organization, "to work unceasingly" for the end of compulsory military training.

In a statement Martin added: "If a mutual understanding can be reached between nations and peoples that the policy of gigantic systems of universal compulsory military service should be eliminated, it would relieve the United States and all other nations of the necessity to assume this great new burden at a time when we must build, reconstruct and readjust the world to peace."

ROW ON IN CONGRESS OVER EQUAL RIGHTS

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(P)—A battle over equal rights for men and women began in congress today.

The house judiciary committee touched off the controversy by filing a majority report urging adoption of legislation proposing an equal rights amendment to the Constitution.

The report said such action is needed to halt what it termed discrimination against women in the form of lower pay schedules, and to prevent their exclusion from many jobs.

Seven committee members filed two minority reports condemning the suggested amendment.

They asserted it would take away many rights women need, such as special health laws. It would, they said, raise such questions as whether a wife shouldn't be equally liable with the husband for support of a family or paying alimony.

MAN DROWNS IN OHIO

CINCINNATI, July 16.—(P)—Bernard Waters, 30, of Cincinnati drowned yesterday after his canoe was overturned in the Ohio River by waves from the Island Queen excursion boat.

BOY BURNED FATALLY

TOLEDO, July 16.—(P)—Harry Kogler, 12, son of Mrs. Gertrude Kogler, was burned fatally yesterday as his clothing caught fire in a garage at his home.

UTAH STEEL PLANT WANTED BY KAISER

OAKLAND, Calif., July 16.—(P)—Henry J. Kaiser disclosed today he has begun negotiations with the Defense Plant Corporation for the lease and eventual purchase of the $200,000,000 Geneva steel plant at Provo, Utah, operated by U. S. Steel Corp.

The west coast industrialist made public a letter revealing the plans to form the "Kaiser Syndicate" with adequate working capital provided by the Bank of America, or by a banking pool.

He envisioned expansion of the giant Geneva works by proposing construction of two $25,000,000 plants, one a cold strip mill, the other seamless tube and electric welded pipe mill.

Butter Point Value Cut Opens Drive for Meat

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(P)—Stores sold butter at 16 ration points a pound today as the government put into effect a major segment of its plan to improve the meat situation.

Elsewhere on the food front, the Republican congressional food study committee issued a statement saying "an increase in the price of bread and a reduction in the quantity produced may result from failure of the administration to provide adequate sugar supplies."

The reduction from 24 to 16 points for creamery butter is expected by OPA to prevent deterioration in retail stores during the season of peak butter production. Farm or country butter remains at 12 points a pound, and margarine continues at 14 points.

A ten-million pound increase in civilian butter supplies is expected next month, OPA said, as the result of a cut in the amount set aside for military use.

OPA tied a string on its gift to housewives, however, with a warning the point value would be increased again if butter sells too rapidly.

The Republican food study committee's report on bread quoted Representative Jenkins of Ohio, chairman, as saying most bakers have had to make up losses on bread output with profits from such sweet goods as rolls, cakes and pastries.

Asserting sugar quotas for bakers have been cut to 60 percent of their 1941 volume and many

Churchill Makes Courtesy Call on U. S. President—Stalin Has Not Yet Made Appearance—War Against Japan Expected to Be One of Main Topics for Discussion

POTSDAM, July 16.—(P)—President Truman talked with Prime Minister Churchill and toured the wrecked heart of Berlin today preliminary to the first Big Three meeting, at which the war with Japan likely will be a leading topic.

First American president to visit Germany, Mr. Truman had an opportunity to see Adolf Hitler's ruined and looted Chancellery, the battle-scarred Reichstag and the wreckage of the Tiergarten.

Soviet spokesmen said they had no word that Premier Stalin and Foreign Minister Molotov had arrived in Potsdam, but added: "they will be here in time for the opening conference." The opening sessions, originally scheduled today, apparently had been delayed until tomorrow.

The President slipped out of Potsdam for two hours for his tour. He inspected the U. S. Second Armored (Hell On Wheels) Division along one of the super-highways Hitler built. This division is an American occupation force in Berlin.

A conciliation meeting was to be held today in an effort to iron out a jurisdictional dispute which caused 874 AFL Bay cities metal trades workers to leave their jobs in San Francisco. The men, working on nine war-damaged government ships, were protesting the employment of CIO scalers, cleaners and painters, but they continued work on other ships.

Ohio Situation Eases

Local and long distance telephone service at Warren and nearby Newton Falls was halted today when some 114 operators employed by the Warren Telephone Co. left their switchboards at 10 A. M. in an effort to enforce wage increase and other demands.

Only six operators remained on duty to handle emergency calls to police and fire departments and hospitals.

Only one other dispute marred the calmness of the Ohio Labor scene today—continuation of a stoppage of 59 CIO-Electrical Tool and Die Workers at the Packard Electric Division of the General Motors Corp., also at Warren. Two other major strikes were settled.

The 6,500 CIO-United Automobile Workers employed at Toledo's Spicer Manufacturing Corp. were to return to work today, ending a 10-day stoppage which hamstrung production of jeeps at the neighboring plant of the Willys-Overland Motors, Inc.

Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. spokesmen predicted resumption of full production at its Akron plants today after virtually all maintenance crews and "an average Sunday attendance" of production workers reported for duty for the first time since July 1.

The 16,500 CIO-United Rubber Workers involved in the strike, a result of disagreements over provisions of a new contract, voted Saturday to return to their jobs and resume negotiations.

LABOR PICTURE GETS BRIGHTER

Only 29,750 Now Idle After 24,250 Go Back To Work

(By the Associated Press)

Some 24,250 persons steamed back to work today, reducing the nation's striking idle to 29,750, its lowest point in weeks.

A conciliation meeting was to be held today in an effort to iron out a jurisdictional dispute which caused 874 AFL Bay cities metal trades workers to leave their jobs in San Francisco. The men, working on nine war-damaged government ships, were protesting the employment of CIO scalers, cleaners and painters, but they continued work on other ships.

OHIO LEADS NATION IN WAR EXPANSION

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(P)—Ohio led the nation in the expansion of manufacturing facilities during the war, the War Production Board announced today.

Ohio accounted for $1,677,000,000 of the $4,500,000,000 in private funds spent for new facilities, the WPB said. The state had WPB authorization for 1,293 additions. The nation's total expenditure was $20,300,000,000.

Cleveland—Ranked eighth in the nation's top 10 industrial cities in money spent on new facilities.

ERIE STORM WRECK BOATS AND HOLDS UP STEAMER

CLEVELAND, July 16.—(P)—A Lake Erie storm last night wrecked two pleasure cruisers and delayed the excursion steamer Theodore Roosevelt four hours and 15 minutes on her return trip from Cedar Point.

All 16 passengers of the two cruisers were rescued by coast guardsmen before the vessels were dashed on rocks near Avon Lake.

Mop-Up of Okinawa Still Going On

Yanks Just Sit and Pick Off Singles Now - - Mystic Orient Generates Tall Stories

WITH 27TH DIVISION, Okinawa—(P)—Troops of this U. S. Tenth Army division are cleaning up the wild mountain country of northern Okinawa, where die-hard Japanese continue to lurk and frightened Okinawans still hide.

It's a change for the men, under Maj. Gen. George W. Griner of Chapel Hill, N. C., from the thunderous battle on southern Okinawa.

"Our job is just to wait," explained Sgt. George Knesky of Buffalo, N. Y. "We just wait here on this cliff, overlooking the trail you climbed, and if any Jap soldier comes out we let him have it."

The cliff post was part of a blocking line through the wilderness across the entire width of the island—a military version of an immense police dragnet.

The mopping up sweep started May 17, when the southern battle was still raging in full fury.

Another part of the operation is carried out by patrols, driving Japanese into the blocking line and setting up ambushes. Sgt. Adolph Beitel of Red Lodge, Mont., was leading a five man patrol.

"I heard a gun click in the brush nearby," he said. "I ducked off the trail and a Jap only ten feet away fired twice but missed. I fired into the brush and the Jap jumped and ran smack into

152 MORE SHIPS AND 133 PLANES ARE DESTROYED

People Clamor for Mikado's Government To Take Steps To End Devastation

By LEONARD MILLIMAN
By The Associated Press.
Tokyo reported American naval task forces were withdrawing from northern Japanese waters today after big guns wrecked two steel producing cities one of the most devastating week ends of the war, during which 152 of the Mikado's vessels and 133 aircraft were destroyed or damaged.

Tokyo conceded the powerful Third Fleet bombardment units

JAPS WEAKENING
SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—(P)—Japan will be compelled to surrender, a Domei News Agency dispatch said today, unless her war leaders take a realistic view of the "world situation" and abandon hopes of victory through a split among the United Nations.

Land-based aircraft ranging from Superforts to two Jima's fighters kept the air pressure on Japan today, although their numbers were negligible compared to Tokyo's estimate of 2,500 sorties flown by carrier aircraft over northern Honshu and Hokkaido islands Saturday and Sunday.

Unrest Grows in Japan

Japanese clamored for their government to do something about it and Lt. Gen. Barney M. Giles, deputy commander of the new U. S. strategic air forces, said 3,000 planes could strike Japan any day.

With reports incomplete on the combined warship shelling and carrier raids on northern Japan, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported cities heavily damaged and communications virtually cut off between Honshu, "mainland" of Japan, and Hokkaido, refuge island to the north. Thirteen other cities were hammered by land-based aircraft during the week end.

A thousand tons of American shells fired from the superbattleships Missouri, Iowa and Wisconsin, and bombs from supporting aircraft set off a series of explosions and fires in the Nippon steel plant, heavily damaged the Waniishi iron works, a chemical plant, and other industrial establishments. Fires blazed throughout the industrial and waterfront sections. The smoke pall was so heavy spotter planes were flying only 1,000 feet above the city and still were unable to determine accurately the damage.

No Resistance Offered

The Japanese made no attempt to retaliate, although the bold task force under Rear Adm. Oscar C. Badger steamed virtually into the harbor with Japanese shores on three sides of the bombardment group.

Tokyo reported reconstruction crews were at work repairing the steel producing city of Kamaishi, which was wrecked Saturday by another task force under Rear Adm. J. F. Shafroth.

Supporting carrier aircraft—Tokyo said there were 1,000 Saturday and 1,500 Sunday—plunged through bad weather to knock out land and sea communications around both cities. They destroyed

NEW PASSENGER CARS NO LONGER RATIONED

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(P)—The OPA today removed all rationing restrictions on new 1942 model passenger cars, effective Wednesday.

The agency described rationing as no longer necessary because new cars will soon begin reaching the market. The action will permit dealers to clear their stocks of the 6,000 cars still unsold.

SEWER SYSTEM GROWING WORSE IN THIS CITY

Lack of Foresight Is Seen Providing Proper Drainage Here

Sewer facilities of the city are growing worse year by year and in the not distant future much of the present inadequate system must be replaced, is the opinion of City Manager Walter L. Stambaugh, who has found sewer troubles the major problems since he took charge as city manager.

Not only are many of the sewers inadequate for handling the drainage of the area through which they pass, but many are nothing more or less than drain pipes, which readily fill with tree roots.

Some of the main sewers that ordinarily would be adequate, are partly choked with roots and during heavy rains the flood waters can not escape fast enough and basements in many parts of the city are flooded, Stambaugh points out, in naming a few of the many troubles.

Some of the sewers are so badly overloaded that they barely care for the normal sewage, without taking into consideration the storm water.

The storm and sanitary sewers are connected and this immediately causes trouble and throws a vast amount of extra water into the sewage disposal plant, even though there are interceptors at all the points where main sewers enter the large sanitary sewer that follows Paint Creek down through the city.

During recent months the numerous heavy rains have exacerbated the bad sewer conditions here and Stambaugh, who spent years as a civil engineer, has studied the conditions and has reached the conclusion that a general change in providing for better drainage must be made and many of the present sewers replaced with larger ones and freed of stormwater.

Until this is done, keeping the sewers cleaned out will be one of the major problems of the city and basements will be flooded with every heavy rain, Stambaugh believes.

Much of the present system was installed without any particular plan or foresight as to the future, it is pointed out.

BONDS CLIMBING FURTHER OVER TOP OF QUOTA

E Bond Goal Only One Not Yet Achieved; Final Report Coming

Fayette County's War Bond total stood at $782,700, the federal reserve reported showed Monday.

The figure was based on business reported as of Thursday and the extra thousands were believed by War Finance Committee men to represent bond purchases made outside the county but allocated here.

A jump in the E bond total was noted particularly, with $500,700 credited here to date. That is just $17,300 short of the E. bond goal and hopes were expressed today that subsequent reports this week would show an over-the-top figure. The final report on the drive has not yet been made, it was said.

So far, the grand total of War Bond sales—including purchases of organizations which do not count on the individual sales—is $1,216,524.50. Fayette County far exceeds her quota in that part of the drive. The goal set was $858,000.

Carroll Halliday, chairman of the War Finance Committee, repeated his belief that the results of the "campaign within a campaign" plus the extra efforts of the individual bond salesmen and women, account for final boost over the top. A very definite opinion was expressed that the bonds representing the total were purchased in the county and not a gift of the state organization to save the county any embarrassment at not achieving its goal.

SECOND COURSE ON CCC BEING LAID

Final Layer in Resurfacing Work Comes Later

Work of laying the second of the three coats in the resurfacing work on the Columbus highway from this city to beyond Mt. Sterling is well under way, and traffic is being maintained while the resurfacing is underway.

The seal coat was completed last week, after which a leveling course of bituminous macadam was started, and several miles of this has been laid. This course is about 1 1/2 inches thick.

The final course will also be about 1 1/2 inches in thickness, and this will be laid within the next two or three weeks if the weather permits.

TRUMAN TOURS BERLIN AS HE WAITS OPENING OF BIG THREE MEETING

Europe's conglomerate millions. It seemed certain, also, the war against Japan would be on the agenda.

President Truman, bronzed and at the peak of vitality after an eight-day Atlantic crossing was ready to talk business with Churchill and Stalin. The president, who arrived by plane yesterday, took up residence 10 minutes away from the Big Three conference building.

The president's reported plan to visit London after the meeting was described as tentative, and he will not visit France. It was reported that should the conference be prolonged unduly, the president would return immediately to Washington, where he would report promptly to Congress on the parley.

The president's associates said he met with his new secretary of state, James F. Byrnes, immediately after the arrival of their separate planes from Brussels.

Then Churchill Comes Prime Minister Churchill arrived in Potsdam shortly after the president. Mr. Truman, however, adhering to his plan to see the British and Russian leaders together rather than confer with either separately, dined with his press secretary, Charles G. Ross, members of his staff and Secretary Byrnes. He conferred briefly with Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff, and Admiral of the Fleet Ernest J. King.

BLUE GRASS LIVESTOCK
Walter Thompson, advisor for the Blue Grass Livestock 4-H Club, distributed work books when the club met at the home of Betty and Donald Wolfe. The members worked to fill out the book.

Guessing games and refreshments followed the meeting. The next session will be at the home of Rodney Acton.

STITCH AWAY

Betty Lou Weidinger was chosen as the representative of the Stitch Away 4-H Club in the health contest to be held at the Fair. She was named when the club met with Dolores Ann Holland.

Preparations for the 4-H Club camp at Camp Clifton also were discussed. The organization's Fair exhibit also was planned.

Projects will be judged Thursday at the home of the advisor, Mrs. Willard Judy, after which the group will go to Johnson's Crossing for a picnic.

The club voted to send a gift to Dorothy Gilmore, a member who is ill.

BOUNTY ON FOXES IS PENDING HERE

$5 Payment Considered for Each Fox Killed

Whether or not there will be a bounty on foxes in Fayette County depends on the action of the general assembly, the county commissioners said today. A law providing the bounty now is on the floor in the capitol building. They are willing to post a $5 bounty for each fox killed but want to see what the state legislators decide before they take any action.

Increasing poultry sayings by the foxes have been noted here in the past few weeks and the commissioners are eager to do all they can to stop it. Some instances of foxes killing lambs and young pigs also have been reported.

Arrived in Potsdam shortly after the president. Mr. Truman, however, adhering to his plan to see the British and Russian leaders together rather than confer with either separately, dined with his press secretary, Charles G. Ross, members of his staff and Secretary Byrnes. He conferred briefly with Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff, and Admiral of the Fleet Ernest J. King.

The European greetings to the American chief of executive, which had begun with a salute by seven British men of war upon his arrival in British waters, continued through the arrival at Antwerp to Brussels villagers lining the route waved to him.

Gen. Eisenhower and Admiral Harold R. Stark, commander of U. S. naval forces in Europe, had met the president on the deck of the cruiser and accompanied him as far as Brussels.

President Truman was reported amazed by the evidences of destruction he saw during his flight yesterday across the Rhine near Coblenz and over Kassel and other German cities. He was interested in the signs of agricultural activity he saw in scattered areas.

The president's party includes Byrnes, Gen. Marshall, Adm. King, Adm. William D. Leahy, his personal chief of staff; Ross, and a number of State, War and Navy Department experts who have gone over the agenda submitted by the other powers and had whipped into shape proposals for Truman to submit to the conference.

NEARBY LAKES TO BE CREATED AFTER THE WAR

Highland and Clinton County Recreation Areas To Be Closest

Two outdoor recreation areas within an hour's drive of Washington C. H. today drew nearer realization for hundreds of residents of this community when the Ohio Division of Conservation and Natural Resources announced plans for creating three lakes covering more than 3,220 acres.

The biggest and nearest of the three is to be about half way between Bainbridge and Hillsboro on Rocky Fork Creek and the other is to be in Clinton County beyond Wilmington. The third, a little farther from here but still within easy peacetime driving distance, is to be in Clermont County.

Announcement that the plans had been laid out did not come as much of a surprise here because there had been several reports of official approval of the projects during the last few months. The movements for the lakes were started several years ago, but normally slow progress of unwinding red tape was still further slowed by wartime pressure for labor and materials.

Funds would come from the more than a million dollars appropriated as the department's share of the $79,000,000 additions and betterments bill awaiting the signature of Gov. Frank J. Lausche, the conservation division said.

The projects included construction of a lake on Rocky Fork Creek, Highland County, providing approximately 2,000 acres of water and more than 4,000 acres of marginal land at an estimated cost of $400,000.

A lake in the Stone Lick Creek watershed, Clermont County, covering approximately 500 acres of water and 300 acres of marginal land, $200,000; and Cowan Creek Lake on Todd Fork and the Little Miami River, Clinton County, 720 acres of water, $350,000.

Other funds are earmarked for improvements at Sencaville Lake as a war memorial to Ohio service men and women, the development of the recently acquired East Harbor on Lake Erie, and improvements at Portage Lakes near Akron.

The division said tentative plans for the East Harbor project would involve an estimated $70,000 and would provide approximately 400 acres of land and 700 acres of water. Plans include construction of shelter houses, picnic sites and paved roads.

The division reported an estimated $6,000 would be used to improve lake fronts at Portage Lakes and to drain marsh lands there.

The crust of the earth is made up of three types of rock—sedimentary, igneous, and metamorphic.

MORE ARMY UNITS RETURN TO STATES

By The Associated Press.
Army units arriving in the United States today (Monday) from Europe:

At New York: The 3052nd QM Salvage Collecting Company and the 6837th, 6839th, 6840th, 6841st, 6842nd and 6843rd QM detachments.

At Boston: 35th Chemical Decontamination Company, 3277th Ordnance Base Depot Company (Detachment), and following units of Fifth Division: Headquarters and Headquarters Battery, 19th Field Artillery Battalion, 46th Field Artillery Battalion and 21st Field Artillery Battalion, and the 50th Field Artillery Battalion.

and damaged 128 vessels (33 ships sunk, 34 damaged and 31 smaller craft sunk and 30 damaged), including virtually all of the ferries which carry essential raw materials from Hokkaido. They knocked out 92 planes, most of them on the ground.

Other air strikes accounted for the balance of Japanese planes and ships wrecked ranged as far south as Malaya.

Navy privateers hit 12 vessels off Korea. Liberators got four near southern Honshu, Thunderbolt fighters added one at Shanghai, and Mustang fighters from two added seven near Nagoya. The Mustangs accounted for 37 planes in raids on six Nagoya fields. Six more were eliminated over Malaya.

Yank Planes Back
Tokyo reported Mustangs were back today, as between 50 and 75 Superforts set off explosions and fires visible for 100 miles in their second high explosive strike at the Kudamatsu oil refinery. No B-29s were lost. Previous Superfort strikes wrecked from 49 to 95 percent of Nippon's nine other oil centers.

"Japan is virtually destroyed," said General Giles and there are no targets left in Japan worth 1,000 plane raids. He indicated strikes in this force would be hurled against virtually untouched targets on the Asiatic mainland after Lt. Gen. James Doolittle's Eighth Air Force is established in Japan.

established on Okinawa. Doolittle's Superforts will begin arriving on Okinawa in mid-August.

More Islands Taken

Admiral Nimitz belatedly announced the occupation of Ihiya and Aguni islands in the Okinawa area early in June. They were taken by Marines without opposition.

Rugged, tense Marines of the Eighth Regimental Combat Team splashed ashore on little Ihiya Island, 310 miles south of Kyushu, June 3 behind a stiff rocket and shellfire barrage and beneath low-flying air cover—and found no one but docile natives.

But the only Japanese in the whole area—garrisoning a tiny island nearby—had watched the barrage and promptly rowed over in a longboat to surrender their entire 156-man garrison.

Current Allied land conquests include Allied advances on two coastal and two inland sectors of China. Chinese were reported mopping up Manchien, sixth former American air base site to be regained, as the main portion of the enemy garrison fled northward from the island city.

In southeast China two of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's columns were reported within 50 and 32 miles of Kweilin, one of the most important former U. S. air bases.

Coastal Chinese forces pressed within 117 miles of Shanghai, capturing Chongshien, and on the south coast seized the highway center of Lingkong on the Luli-chow Peninsula.

Yanks mopping up in the Philippines killed 4,879 Japanese last week and captured 608. Among them were hundreds of Japanese naval labor troops who starved while Japanese army units ate heartily. American casualties last week were 62 killed, one missing, 195 wounded. Total casualties for the Philippine campaign were 428,732 Japanese, mostly dead, and 54,502 American, mostly wounded.

Australian forces drove five miles through southeast Borneo swamps to within five miles of the rich Sambodja oil field against vanishing enemy resistance. Nipponese began pulling out, too, from a brief stand in southern Burma where British cleared out five more villages.

Growing unrest in Japan was indicated in a demand from a retired lieutenant general for the army to "disengage itself from political activities" and get down to business, and a newspaper plea for the government to translate its plans into action. Tokyo broadcast more warnings of an imminent invasion and threats to produce "a surprise" secret weapon soon.

"YOUNG MAN, STRING A LINE UP THERE FOR ME"

We can understand the impatient lady who wanted us to string a line to the telephone exchange for her. That does seem the practical thing to do when a person needs telephone service.

Unfortunately the problem isn't that simple. For every customer or group of customers on a party line, there must be a pair of wires to an exchange. Each exchange, in turn, must be inter-connected by cables containing as many as 2,121 pairs of wires.

Back in the early 1880's, before telephone cables were developed, there were so many subscribers' lines in large cities that they fairly blotted out the sun. Progress in research and engineering overcame these early difficulties, enabling us to talk across town or across the continent with equal ease. But the very nature of our fast, universal service of today demands a vast and complex telephone system.

That's why we plan to extend and improve our network of cables, wires and exchange equipment in Ohio as soon as materials and manpower become available. Only by enlarging our whole system can we serve the 90,000 persons now waiting for service in our territory and the thousands of others who will want it in the future.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

It won't be long now before we have an answer to the greatest question that has grown out of the European war—whether the Big Three can stand solidly together in the reconstruction of a shattered continent as they have stood together on the battlefields.

If President Truman, Generalissimo Stalin and Prime Minister Churchill are able to keep the Berlin conference in the channels of unity and mutual confidence, then we shall have won the peace as we have won the war. Solution of all the great problems growing out of the Hitlerian conflict are bound up in this unity among America, Britain and Russia.

One can foresee blunt talk about the conference table, for confidence depends on the dissipation of any suspicions which the Big Three may have of one another's intentions. Confidence also calls for the mutual respect which recognizes that each has contributed its limit to the war partnership and that none is entitled to special prerogatives.

While we are on the subject of contributions, it wouldn't be surprising if one of the results of the conference would be to let the rest of Europe understand what our Russian and British allies already know, and this is that there are limits to the resources which America can devote to the rehabilitation of the Old World. The mistaken idea seems to prevail in many capitals that our Uncle Sam is Santa Claus. There's nothing he would like better than to play that role, for he has the disposition, but he just hasn't the wherewithal to meet the demands made on him.

Undoubtedly the freedom with which Uncle Sam has contributed throughout the war has created the impression that his means are unlimited. Well, he's not complaining, but the fact is that his Sunday suit is beginning to show some shiny spots. So while he will continue to share everything he can, there will be a point where he has to tighten up a bit.

The Berlin parley will deal with many situations which normally would come up at a full-dress peace conference. Outstanding among these (apart from reinforcement of solidarity among the Big Three and the creation of common policies for the reconstruction) is the handling of Germany. The punishment and remoulding of this former great power presents staggering problems. There are territorial adjustments, perhaps the breaking up of the Reich, the form of government to be permitted and the reparations.

Probably the most troublesome aspect of German rehabilitation lies in the re-education of the people. Here we are dealing with an imponderable, for we have no precedent to help us determine the right course to pursue. It will have to be worked out most carefully, for a mistake might be disastrous.

The Nazis of course have recognized all this, and they are hoping against hope that this transition period will give them the break they need to revive Hitlerism. They are working for disorder in Germany, and for disunity among the Big Three. This is a dangerous period for the Allies.

Then there are other major questions which are likely to arise at the conference. Among them may be Russia's attitude towards Japan—at least Tokyo is looking for this. There are numerous boundary readjustments on the fire, and hundreds of thousands of civilians to be transferred in order to avoid fresh minority problems. The whole continent is rocking with these political situations, and the fiery Balkans are on the verge of upheaval.

One of the most urgent problems naturally is the feeding of a hungry Europe. That must be done quickly—and it's going to tax the resources of the whole world. Failure will mean that thousands must die.

FAYETTE GIRL VISITS HOME OF HELLDIVERS

Toledo Girl Wins Contest Sponsored by Ohio Cannery

The Japanese navy will be fearful of United States naval forces when formations of Curtis Helldivers approach. That is the opinion expressed by Miss Phyllis Brush of Washington C. H., after she had completed a tour of the huge Curtiss-Wright plant at Columbus, Wednesday, where she found countless numbers of Helldivers in all stages of production.

Miss Brush was at the plant representing Fayette county as one of 36 county prize winners taken there as guests of the Ohio Cannery Association and the War Manpower Commission in Ohio for a one day program climaxing a state-wide essay contest in which more than 4,000 high school students participated.

Purpose of the contest was to arouse public consciousness of the importance of canned food in the war effort and to stimulate recruitment of workers in the forthcoming canning season which will reach its peak in mid-September.

Martha Boden of Toledo Waite high school was named first prize winner and received a $100 war bond presented on behalf of the Cannery Association by Governor Frank J. Lausche at a luncheon at the Faculty Club on the Ohio State University campus honoring the respective county winners. Other prize winners were: 2nd prize, Dorothy Justice, R. R.-1, London; 3rd prize, Mary Jane Wischmeyer, R. R.-2, Ottawa; 4th prize, Eveline Dulle, R. R.-5, Napoleon.

Honorable mention awards were presented to Lawrence Aldridge, Urbana; Sadie Kreitz, R. R.-1, S. Vienna; Bessie Ring, Conneaut; Paul Paulse, II, Hillsboro; Alma Palm, Defiance; Rose E. Heiser, Willard; Lillian Remesnick, Andover; Wanda Scott, R. R.-2, London, and Betty Ballenbacher, Rockford.

John L. Craig, Ohio War Manpower Director, President Howard L. Bevis of Ohio State University and Chief Justice Carl V. Weygant of the Ohio Supreme Court, served with Governor Lausche as judges of the state winners.

Craig said today Ohio cannery will need 29,000 workers at the peak of the coming season.

The end of the trail was a field kitchen where Sgt. Conrad Hilbert of Aitkin, Minn., and Cpl. Emil Negri of Peru, Ill., brewed wonderful coffee.

Sgt. Henry Roth of Forest Hills, N. Y., said that at this trail-end point "we stop a lot of Japanese soldiers who try to escape to Japan by canoe or any kind of boat they can find. It's like shooting clay ducks in a shooting gallery."

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY

Question—Does the Bible really say that God is immortal?

Answer—Yes. Read 1 Timothy 1:17: "Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever."

Q.—Are we not supposed to pray in church and not at home?

A.—In 1 Timothy 2:8 the apostle Paul writes: "I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting."

Q.—Don't you think some folks make too much of the Bible?

A.—In reply we read Psalm 138:2: "I will worship toward Thy holy temple, and praise Thy name for Thy lovingkindness and for Thy truth: for Thou hast magnified Thy Word above all Thy name." If God so magnifies His Word, should we not give it the greatest reverence?

Q.—How can I know that my sins are forgiven?

A.—By meeting God's conditions of forgiveness. "But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin. . . . If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:7,9.

Q.—What do you think about gossiping?

A.—The Bible says that our words are an index to our character. Matthew 12:34: "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." And by our words we shall be condemned in the judgment. "For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned." Verse 37. Tale-bearing or unkind gossip is forbidden. "Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty; but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour." Leviticus 19:15. "The words of a talebearer are wounds." Proverbs 26:22. "Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out; so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth." Verse 20. All our words are known to God. "For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether." Psalm 139:4.

vast collection of myths and legends related to the United States war effort in the Orient.

Some of these stories might have a shred of truth but most of them defy any attempts at confirmation. That doesn't keep them from being good stories.

There's a recurrent myth propagated by the boys who used to fly the hump over the rugged north Burma route before the conquest of Burma permitted easier passages—the story of sighting a mountain a mile higher than Mt. Everest. So far as I know the map coordinates of this peak never have been recorded.

Then there's the crew of a tanker plane bearing high octane gasoline which was dismayed by St. Elmo's fire playing eerily over the wings, threatening (the crewmen thought) to touch off their volatile cargo.

A ball of weird flame even materialized inside the plane, so the tale is told, and rolled back and forth and from side to side, with the pitching of the craft which was in a severe storm at the time.

More recent versions of this story have it that a thoughtful crewman took down the parachute exit panel and the ball of blue fire rolled out of its own accord.

There's a whole dossier of stories related to smuggling and illicit disposal of government property which make the GI who sells his 60-cent carton of cigarettes for $20 or $30, American, look like a poorbox thief. There's the tale of the fellow that sold a whole airplane on the black mar-

"This bill offers us the opportunity to initiate constructive steps to outlaw competitive currency devaluation and other economic warfare devices, to substitute cooperation for unilateral action in dealing with international problems."

Wagner listed these four main points of the fund:

"First, all countries recognize the importance of dealing with international monetary problems through continuing cooperation. This fund provides. The member countries will find the fund a convenient place to discuss international monetary problems, exchange views and work out practical programs. Moreover, the fund will establish standards of fair exchange practice that will assure all countries that their international economic position will not be impaired by arbitrary and destructive measures taken by others."

"Second, the member countries agree to establish the initial parties of their currencies through consultation and agreement with the fund, and when the parity has been fixed to maintain their currencies stable within a range of one per cent above or below parity."

posit to the credit of the fund at the Federal Reserve Bank. Other countries will subscribe $6,050,000,000, of which more than $1,100,000,000 will be in gold and $4,950,000,000 in their currencies."

Criticism Answered

Wagner took note of criticism that the United States "puts up nearly all the fund's good assets, that what other countries put up is little better than worthless paper."

He suggested: "Ask any banker engaged in the business of buying and selling these currencies every day if he believes them to be worthless."

Of the bank, which would have $9,100,000,000 capital with $3,175,000,000 of it from the United States, Wagner said:

"No one expects the international bank for reconstruction and development to handle all foreign investment or even a major portion of it."

"The role of the bank will be to pick up where private investment would otherwise leave off and, by guaranteeing loans that meet specified requirements, stimulate additional private international investment through established investment channels."

"In performing this function the bank will operate substantially in the following manner: It will determine the soundness of a project for which its assistance is sought . . . if satisfied on this point, it will secure the guarantee of the government or the central bank of the country in which the project is to be located, and finally, it will add its own guaranty to the borrower's securities which will be marketed through established channels."

"The risks associated with loans sponsored by the bank, therefore, will not fall on the investors, nor even on any one country, but upon all member countries. And all countries, in turn, will derive benefits from an expansion of international investment."

Kathleen Wilson Marries Pfc. Warden W. Webb Here At Grace Methodist Church

Open Church Ceremony Performed by Rev.
G. B. Parkin Sunday Evening at 7:30 Units
Couple in Marriage; Reception Followed

Tall baskets of white gladioli, archilla, baby's breath and fern flanked seven-branch candelabras at the altar of Grace Methodist Church on Sunday evening, July fifteenth when a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. G. B. Parkin, pastor of the church, united Kathleen Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Wilson, in marriage to Private First Class Warden Webb, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William R. Webb, of Greenfield, as the hands of the clock left seven-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. Marian Gage, organist, and Mrs. Weldon Flint, vocalist, presented a quarter-hour program of appropriate selections, preceding the exchange of vows.

Miss Wilson, who approached the altar on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, was lovely in a wedding gown of ivory brocaded satin which was fashioned along princess lines, with a sweetheart neckline and a snug bodice while the long tight sleeves ended in points at the wrists. The skirt of the gown flared below the hips, the fullness falling from a back panel and terminating in a wide circular train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a lace Juliet cap, topped with wax orange blossoms. The beautiful bride carried a shower bouquet of ivory roses and stephanotis surrounding a purple-throated orchid.

Mrs. Richard Garrett, of Columbus, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, was dressed in yellow tulle which was fashioned with a very full net skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of dark red roses, surrounded by net ruffles.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Gene Travis and Mrs. Paul Schorr were identical aqua gowns of tulle and net which were period styled with low necklines, short puffed sleeves and full net skirts. Both wore net mits to match and roses in their hair. Each carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses and a gold bracelet, the bride's gift.

Ushers seating the guests were Mrs. Ralph Hyer and Mrs. Wallace Noon who were gowned exactly alike in pink net over tulle, with light basque waist and bracelet length sleeves. Each wore feathered carlots to match their floor-length gowns and had white gardenia corsages. Mrs. Hyer and Mrs. Noon also wore the bride's gift of gold bracelets.

Master Roger Lee Schorr was ring bearer. Mr. Richard Garrett, of Columbus, the bride's brother-in-law, was best man for the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wilson chose a dusty rose crepe floor length gown with which she wore white accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of deep pink roses.

A reception was held for the bridal party, relatives and invited guests, immediately following the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents on East Street. Seventy-five persons were served during that time, when Mrs. Paul Metzgar, Mrs. Loren Noble, Mrs. Ralph Hyer and Mrs. Wallace Noon assisted.

When the couple left for a two week's wedding trip in New York and Canada, the new Mrs. Webb was wearing a smart two-piece black sheer frock with embroidered top, over which she wore a black short coat. She wore the orchid from her bouquet and had black and white accessories.

Mrs. Wilson, who is a graduate of Washington High School, is employed at the Air Service Command at Dayton. Pfc. Webb, a graduate of Russellville High School and Wilmington College, has just returned after thirty-seven months in Australia and New Guinea. He reports at Camp Atterbury, Ind., on August 23 for reassignment after foreign service.

Surprise Party On Birthday Is Pleasant Affair

Mrs. Robert W. Moyer was the honored guest at a surprise birthday party given Friday evening at the Bloomingburg residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Purcell, her sister, Miss Donna Marilyn Purcell, being hostess for the jolly and informal occasion.

The many guests assembled bringing covered dishes for a potluck supper which was served buffet style from the dining table which was centered with a watergarden of garden flowers. After the guests were served, they adjourned to small tables on the back lawn where a gorgeous variety of garden flowers made the setting a perfect one for the enjoyable hour.

Group singing and games were provided as entertainment by the hostess for the remainder of the evening. Those enjoying the affair were Misses Nancy and Edith Heacock, Lois Kennell, Wilma Noble, Mary E. Browning, Casette Larimer, Dorothy Short, Mrs. Kermit Kellough, Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. James Hunter, Mrs. Robert Huff, Mrs. Charles Andrews, Mrs. W. P. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Purcell, Mrs. Moyer and young son, Bobbie, and the hostess, Miss Purcell, all of Bloomingburg and Miss Grace Humphrey, of this city.

Just before the arrival of the guests, Mrs. Moyer was presented a bouquet of roses, a gift from her husband, First Lt. Moyer, who is stationed on Guadalcanal.

Couple Honored Saturday Evening

Phm. 3-c Norris C. Highfield, who is on leave from San Bruno, California, and Mrs. Highfield, were complimented with an informal party Saturday evening at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Terhune.

An evening of cards was enjoyed by the honored guests, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Loren D. Hynes and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodard.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Terhune served a delicious buffet supper.

Engagement Denied
Mrs. W. C. Roush, mother of Charles Roush, and Mrs. Gerald Augustus, mother of Miss Ruth Sharrett, in telephone conversations said their son and daughter were not engaged to be married and denied that the announcement published in the Record-Herald last week had come from either of them.

The announcement came to the society desk by telephone from a woman who gave the impression that she was Mrs. Augustus. The Record-Herald, of course, regrets any misinformation, but in this case there is no responsibility. Of necessity, news is assembled on the assumption that everyone is honest and truthful unless proven otherwise. This premise also is recognized by law which provides penalties for those who give false information to newspapers.

Information given the Record-Herald is checked as thoroughly as time and facilities will permit. To give the hundreds of readers the news, it is necessary to accept the word of persons frequently not known personally. However, when false information is given, rare as that is, it is investigated by the newspaper, law enforcement officers and communications officials with a view to prosecution.

Noah Wilson had charge of a very interesting Bible study. During the social hour tempting refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Maude Thomas.

Before the class adjourned, it was announced that the August meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Denen for the class annual outdoor picnic supper.

Seventy-five Relatives and Close Friends Witness Ceremony Saturday Afternoon at Church and Reception follows at Country Club for Guests

On Saturday afternoon, July fourteenth, as the hands of the clock approached five, Rev. D. J. Macdonald performed a single ring wedding ceremony uniting Miss Nancy Lucinda Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. F. Crawford, Prairie Road, in marriage to Leo Terrence Hartman, of South Solon. For the ceremony, the altar of St. Andrews Episcopal Church was decorated with tall floor standards filled with gladioli and greenery which flanked each side of the altar. Two seven-branch candelabras filled with tall, white cathedral tapers burned throughout the ceremony. Two five-branch candelabras were on the altar table. White satin bows and tiny clusters of white flowers decorated each pew entrance.

Preceding the ceremony, which was witnessed by around seventy-five relatives and invited guests, Mrs. Marian Gage, organist, played a program of appropriate nuptial selections. Vocalist was Miss Mary Ellen Geiger, of Newark, a Miami U. classmate of the bride. Mrs. Gage's numbers included "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and "Venetian Love Song." Miss Geiger sang "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me," and "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms." As the bride entered the church, Mrs. Gage played the "Lohengrin Wedding March" and as the newly-weds left, "Mendelssohn's Wedding March."

Ushers seating the guests were Lt. William Sellers, of Cincinnati, and Pvt. Robert McGinnis, this city.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was his brother-in-law, Frank J. Serceji, of Charleston, W. Va.

As maid of honor, the bride's cousin, Miss Lucinda Harper, wore a pink mousseline de sole floor-length gown, fashioned with a tight bodice, high shirred neckline bouffant skirt. She wore a pearl bracelet, a gift of the bride, and a pink Juliet cap. She was carrying a colonial bouquet of pink roses, tied with pink ribbon.

Miss Betty Jean Robinson a close friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a blue floor-length mousseline de sole gown fashioned identically to that of the maid of honor. Her Juliet cap was blue and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and blue flowers, tied with yellow ribbon. Miss Robinson also wore a pearl bracelet, the bride's gift.

Given in marriage by her father, the beautiful bride approached the altar on his arm wearing a wedding gown of white faille and lace which had a tight-fitting bodice and the full faille train was banded about the bottom, in lace. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and a Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls from which fell a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a bridal bouquet of yellow rose buds, centered with a lavender orchid.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Crawford wore a smart green and white crepe afternoon frock, with which she combined white accessories. Her flowers were gardenias.

A crystal watergarden of snapdragons, baby's breath, white roses and greenery composed the centerpiece of the tea table in

Helen Crampton Sunday Bride of Cpl. M. L. Mayer

A quiet, yet beautiful, ceremony performed on Sunday afternoon, July fifteenth, united in marriage Miss Helen Crampton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Crampton, 1119 Washington Avenue, and Corporal Maurice L. Mayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Moyer, CCC highway, at the home of the bride.

Rev. John Glenn, pastor of the Bloomingburg Presbyterian Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony as the hands of the clock approached five. Witnessing the ceremony was the the Country Club lounge when the bridal party and invited guests were entertained at a reception immediately following the church ceremony which was most impressive.

Miss Phyllis Hartzell, of Mitchell, Ind., also a Miami U. classmate of the bride, served the cake after Mr. and Mrs. Hartman had performed the ceremony of cutting the cake which was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Gregory Wurtzel of Columbus, presided at a silver tea service at one end of the table. Also assisting during the serving was Miss Patsy Herbert, of Columbus.

Before leaving the club, Mrs. Hartman tossed her bouquet which was caught by Miss Betty Jean Robinson, her bridesmaid. For going-away, she changed into a two-piece chartreuse gabardine suit. A small brown hat trimmed with chartreuse feathers and brown accessories completed her ensemble. She wore an orchid.

After a two weeks wedding trip, the newly-weds will return to the Crawford residence where they plan to reside for the present.

Mrs. Hartman, a 1943 graduate of Jeffersonville High School, has been attending Miami University, Oxford, for the past two years where she became affiliated with Sigma Kappa Sorority. Mr. Hartman, who is a graduate of South Solon High School, is engaged in farming in the Jeffersonville community.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Serceji and family, of Charleston, W. Va.; Mrs. Eugene Wurtzel, of Columbus; Miss Patty Herbert, of Columbus; Miss Mary Ellen Kreger, of Newark; Miss Phyllis Hartzell, of Mitchell, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Crawford, Plain City; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bault and son, John, of Wapakoneta; Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Crawford, and daughter, Gayle, of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. William Sellers, all of Cincinnati; Mrs. Emma Duff, of South Solon; Mrs. S. L. Rowe, of Columbus; Miss Elaine Oldham and Miss Marilyn Mills of Dayton.

As matron of honor the bride had asked Mrs. James Hunter. Best man for the bridegroom was Lt. Charles M. McCoy.

Given in marriage by her father, the attractive bride came to the improvised altar in the living room, before the mantelpiece, wearing an afternoon frock of poudre blue, fashioned with a rounded neckline trimmed with white sequins and had three-quarter length sleeves. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of gardenias.

For the ceremony, the mantelpiece was decorated with a large watergarden of gladioli, rose buds, carnations and greenery. A floor basket filled with a varied assortment of garden flowers in harmonizing shades was placed at a point of vantage in the living room.

Mrs. Hunter, as matron of honor, chose a yellow afternoon frock with lace insert at the neckline. Her accessories were white and her flowers were a corsage of red rose buds.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Crampton was attired in a black frock with white and yellow print. With this, she combined black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Moyer wore a blue and white print frock with white accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of pink rose buds.

Immediately following the ceremony, a small reception was held at the bride's home. Centering the serving table, which was covered with a lace cloth, was a wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. A watergarden of delicately shaded flowers was on the table.

For going-away, the new Mrs. Moyer chose a watermelon-colored two-piece suit which she accented with black accessories. Her flowers were gardenias. After about a week's wedding trip, they will return here to the respective homes of their parents.

On August 8, Cpl. Mayer reports for further assignment at Camp Campbell, Ky. He recently returned home on a 30 day furlough after having served seven months overseas in England, France, Belgium and Germany with a tank destroyer unit.

Mrs. Moyer plans to remain at home with her parents and will continue working in the office of Aeronautical Products, Inc.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson and Mr. Rex Anderson, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curtis and son, Michael, of Springfield, were the Sunday guests of Miss Agnes Kerrigan.

Miss Phyllis Parker had as weekend guests two Miami University classmates, Miss Elaine Oldham and Miss Marilyn Mills of Dayton. They attended the Crawford-Hartman wedding Saturday.

Miss Barbara Parker, who is a cadet nurse at University Hospital, Ohio State University, Columbus, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker.

Mrs. Walter Kerr returned to her home in Aurora, Indiana, Monday after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. A. S. Stemler.

Ohio Publishers Have Session at Buckeye Lake

Kenneth Kerr, formerly of Washington C. H., now publisher of the Lancaster Eagle-Gazette, was host to members of the publishers of the Ohio Select List of daily newspapers and a few other guests at his cottage at Round Island, Buckeye Lake, Sunday, July 15.

An appetizing buffet dinner featured the entertainment early Sunday evening and the more than 75 guests were treated to a royal time Sunday afternoon and evening.

The gathering preceded the regular meeting of the Select List which was held at Lancaster today. Many of the guests arranged for hotel reservations at Lancaster Sunday night in order to attend the all day business meeting at which problems of Ohio publishers were discussed.

Among the guests of Mr. Kerr Sunday at Buckeye Lake were Governor Frank J. Lausche and members of his cabinet. Many other prominent Ohio officials and a number of military officers from Columbus and Dayton were among those present.

Forest F. Tipton of the Record-Herald and Wayne Galvin, manager of the Galvin newspapers, were among those attending.

CHEESE RATION HOLIDAY

SUGGESTION REFUSED
SEATTLE, July 16—(AP)—The OPA has declined a suggested point holiday on cheese, a packing company executive said today, although he contended foreign point cheese was piling up in warehouses here so rapidly there would be no more room in 30 days.
R. M. Robbins, Frye and Company produce manager, said quota restrictions were lifted for 30 days starting June 15 on manufacture of foreign type cheeses.

COMMISSIONERS HAVE PLAN FOR INFIRMARY PROJECT

NO DECISIONS ON REMODELING HAVE BEEN MADE

Careful Consideration Must Be Given Before Start On Work Made

Remodelling of the old county infirmary on the CCC highway is down on paper, at least.

The board of County Commissioners have the drawings John Quincy Adams, a Columbus architect, made for them under consideration now but have no immediate plans for action, Homer Miller, chairman of the board, said Monday noon.

The architect's drawings show plans for first floor, second floor and basement alterations. A drawing of the outside of the building shows a flat roof, which will be the main physical alteration, other than modernizing of the interior.

Miller said the commissioners recognized the need for a rest home here and said he felt the $400 paid for the architect's services was a good investment, whether or not they were utilized immediately. Just exactly when the building will be remodelled has not been settled. The commissioners admitted they have very strong financial obstacles to overcome and they feel all phases of the development must be carefully weighed before any final decision is made.

A definite step has been taken to make the outmoded building useful again, they feel sure. And, they indicated, the step will not be wasted. The fact that the plans for the Fayette County Hospital are also underway may cause the infirmary project to be shelved for the time being. The commissioners feel a hospital is the primary need here and said they did not want to hinder any action toward it.

The plans for the infirmary call for alterations, rather than construction, they pointed out. The alterations will transform the old building into a comfortable, gracious structure which the architect called "The White House." The entrance, as drawn on the plans, would have four two-story columns.

HAL SUMMERS CAST IN UNIVERSITY PLAY

One of His Poems To Appear In U. S. Anthology

Hal Summers, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Summers, is one of three freshmen at Ohio State University who have been cast in the production, "The Night of January 16."

The mystery drama will be presented August 6, 7, and 8 at 8 P. M. in the Derby Hall dramatic studio on the campus. The cast includes 20 people and Summers will play Judge Heath, a role which requires his growing a mustache.

While not connected with his university activities, one of Summers' poems, "Moon Silver" has been selected from thousands of poems written in 1944-45 to be published in the anthology published by the Poetry Society of America. The anthology will be off the press around the first of August.

Summers' "Moon Silver" also appeared in a high school anthology and was selected from that volume to appear in the poetry society's edition of an anthology which will contain the work of poets all over the United States.

ANOTHER MAN ARRESTED IN THE YANKEE CASE

Reuben Foughty, 47, of Bainbridge, secretly indicted by the Ross County grand jury for receiving and concealing property stolen from the J. P. Ogle residence by Marion Yanke, was taken into custody at his home in Bainbridge over the weekend.

Foughty is the third person involved in aiding Yanke, who was sent to the penitentiary from Fayette County, and escaped, only to be rearrested at Bainbridge and returned to the prison.

HEAVY RAINFALL RETARDS WHEAT HARVEST HERE

Corn Greatly Benefited by .94 of an Inch Rain Over Week End

Rainfall of .94 of an inch over the week end of .86 of which fell Saturday and Sunday night, temporarily halted wheat harvest in Fayette County, but was of great benefit to the corn crop.

Rain started falling Saturday morning and all harvest in the county was halted, but Monday afternoon a few ventured to start their combines once more and others were preparing to resume the work Tuesday.

It will be the middle of the week before threshing from the shock is resumed.

During the last few days wheat was moving into market the past week, it was in good condition generally and most of it was of good quality.

The harvest has proceeded to a point where it is now definitely known that the crop will be normal, or above in quantity and quality.

In some parts of the county the yields are much better than in others and it has been noted that wheat in adjacent fields varies greatly in yield, due to various reasons, chiefly the time it was planted, kind of wheat sown and kind of fertilizer used.

If the weather remains favorable the remainder of this week most of the wheat crop will be safely harvested and storage capacity will be taxed.

Rainfall was just what most of the corn was needing to keep it growing rapidly and insure sufficient moisture to carry it for some time.

The rains over the week end were followed by a sharp drop in temperature and the low Monday morning was 49 degrees, while the maximum Sunday was only 65 degrees. A year ago 95 was the peak and 54 the minimum.

The best oats crop in years is also being cut at the present time and the acreage this year is above normal. Generally the crop is one of the best ever harvested in Fayette County, reports indicate.

EIGHT ARE ARRESTED HERE DURING WEEK END

Eight arrests were made over the week-end, seven by the police, and one by Sheriff Orland Hays. All were charged with intoxication, except two, who were to appear before Judge R. H. Sites sometime Monday. Four posted bonds.

Harry Newland was picked up on a drunk and disorderly charge, and Howard Brown was arrested for the third time in a week on a charge of disorderly conduct.

There are more than 3,000 islands in the Netherlands East Indies group.

5 COUNTY MEN IN UNIT CITED FOR GOOD WORK

224th Quartermasters Salvage Repair Company Praised For Accomplishment

Five Fayette County men are in a quartermaster unit in Europe which has received a coveted unit citation.

They are Pfc. Earl Keith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keith of Jeffersonville; Cpl. William Freshour, husband of Mrs. Edith Freshour of 313 South North Street; Cpl. Paul Happenny, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Happenny, South Fayette Street; Pfc. Ray Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson of Sabina and Pfc. Fred Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion E. Wilson, 1143 Paint Street.

The unit citation reads: "The 224th Quartermasters Salvage Repair Company for superior execution of duty in the performance of exceptionally difficult tasks from November 1, 1944 to February 28, 1945."

"The 224th Quartermaster Salvage Repair Company rendered meritorious service in the accomplishment of its numerous duties on the continent throughout this period. This unit achieved and maintained a high standard of discipline and demonstrated superior performance in every duty it was assigned."

"The conduct of the 224th Quartermaster Salvage Repair Company is in keeping with the high traditions of the military service."

Pfc. Keith, 33, has been in the service for two years and overseas for a year. His wife lives with her parents in Greenfield. Before entering the service, Pfc. Keith was a barber with Carey Phillips.

Th other four men were inducted January 7, 1943. Cpl. Freshour was employed at Wright Field before entering the service. Cpl. Happenny, Pfc. Jackson and Pfc. Wilson, like Cpl. Freshour, all have been overseas about two years.

HELPS IN RESCUE OF 133 HOSTAGES

Political Prisoners Were Held Eight Years

(Special to the Record-Herald)

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, Italy—Pvt. Donald W. Rumer, ammunition bearer, husband of Helen Rumer, Washington C. H., is a member of the 2nd Battalion of the 339th "Polar Bear" regiment, which discovered 133 political hostages in an isolated Italian Alpine camp in the Fifth Army sector.

The 339th is part of the 85th "Custer" Division.

Led by Gen. Garibaldi, Partisan leader who had just escaped from the camp, men from the 2nd battalion climbed the snow-covered Dolomite Alps and surrounded the camp at dawn. The surprised German garrison surrendered without having had a chance to fire.

Most of the hostages had been prisoners of the Gestapo for as long as eight years. According to their testimony, they were to have been put to death on the arrival of the Americans, since it was believed some of them had been executed long before. Among them were Kurt Schusschnigg, Leon Blum, Martin Niemoller, Dr. Hjalmar Schacht and Fritz Thyssen.

Bats hibernate or migrate when they live in regions where severe winters cut off the food supply.

HILTY, MURRAY ARE ATTENDING MIAMI SESSION

125 School Administrators at University for Discussions

The superintendents of Fayette County's two school systems are at Oxford this week attending the Miami Workshop.

Both men—A. B. Murray, superintendent of city schools, and W. J. Hilty, superintendent of county schools—are attending three daily sessions of the workshop, which is sponsored by the deans of the five state universities and by the state department of education.

Around 125 school administrators are attending the workshop where they present their problems and work together on solutions. Murray was chairman of one session discussing broadening pupil experience. Some of the phases of the discussion included the values and difficulties in utilizing work experiences, trips, demonstrations, self-teaching plans, extra curricular activities and other unconventional devices for curricular purposes.

INFANT IS SUMMONED HERE EARLY SUNDAY

Rodney Horr, two days old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Horr, of 931 South Fayette Street, died Sunday at 7 A. M. at the family home. He is survived by his parents, three brothers, Arthur, Ronald and James and three sisters, Phyllis, Patricia and Beverly, and his grandfather, Bert Horr, of Leesburg.

Burial was made in the Washington C. H. Cemetery Monday afternoon under direction of Cox and Parrett Funeral Home.

FAYETTE COUNTY BOYS IN SERVICE

Charles Frederick Schwaigert, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Schwaigert, R. F. D. No. 5, is receiving his initial Naval indoctrination at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois.

First Sergeant and Mrs. Edward W. Sexton are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Sexton, North North Street, while Sgt. Sexton is on a 30 day furlough from Fletcher General Hospital at Cambridge.

Pfc. William H. Young is spending a 30 day convalescent furlough with his mother, Mrs. L. W. Young of Dayton, formerly of 1022 Dayton Avenue, coming from Louisville, Ky. where he is receiving treatment of wounds received December 30 while serving with our armed forces in Belgium.

Lt. and Mrs. John E. Rhoades (Joan Wilson) arrived Sunday from Las Vegas, Nevada. They will spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rhoades and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wilson. Lt. Rhoades plans to leave next Sunday for Lincoln, Nebraska. Mrs. Rhoades will remain here for a few days.

Herbert Hiles, husband of Juanita Hiles, 928 Lakeview Avenue, was graduated recently from the Naval Air Technical Training Center located at Norman, Oklahoma. While at the Norman school he studied the aviation specialty field for which his recruit training aptitude tests showed he was best suited. This training has been designed to fit him for a specialzed Navy job in the long Pacific war ahead and also for skilled work in industry when peace comes. He is now eligible to earn a petty officer rate and is now awaiting further duty orders either to sea or to a Naval base.
